

COMMITTEE FOR THE PROMOTION OF LATIN

CPLG AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITY IN THE SCHOOLS

To support programs and activities in primary and secondary schools, the CAMWS Committee for the Promotion of Latin and Greek (CPLG) annually recognizes with a plaque and a certificate the group which develops the most outstanding and effective activity for promoting Latin in CAMWS territory during each academic year (including the preceding summer). The winner of this award is announced every spring at the annual CAMWS meeting.

Any group wishing to compete for this award must be sponsored by a current CAMWS member and must submit a letter of application by the end of January. (Applications for CPL grants may be combined with applications for this award.) The application letter must include a 100-word summary of the project and a more detailed project description not to exceed 500 words in length. Applicants are encouraged to attach supporting materials such as photographs, flyers, pertinent newspaper articles, etc. Note: Any activity funded by a CPLG grant is automatically considered for this award.

Please send all inquiries and applications by January 30 to the CPLG Chair at cplg@camws.org or by ground mail to:

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South
Watson Memorial Library, Rm 313
Northwestern State University
Natchitoches, Louisiana 71497

Awards are announced at the annual CAMWS business meeting.

Recipients of the 2021-2022 CPLG Award for Outstanding Promotional Activity in the Schools

K-12: Nathalie Roy from Glasgow Middle School, LA, "All STEMS lead to Rome – Classics Day at the Museum"

College/University: Robert Holschuh Simmons from Monmouth College, IL, "Monmouth College's Classics Day"

For a list of previous recipients of this award, see the CPLG webpage:
camws.org/cplg/awards/promtional.php