

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE CAMWS FIRST BOOK AWARD

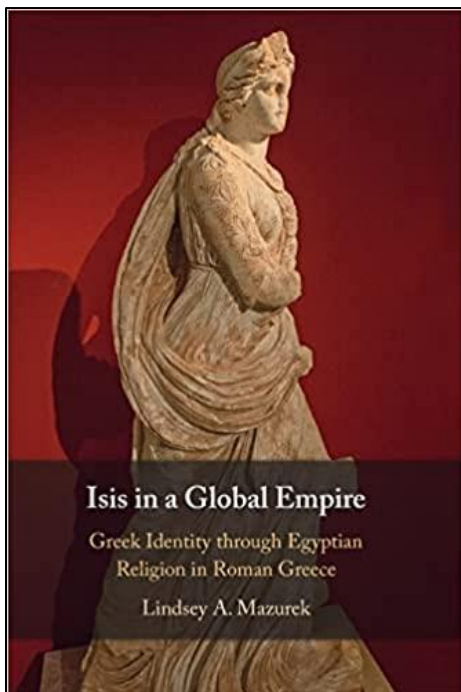

The CAMWS Subcommittee on the First Book Award asks for your help in identifying distinguished first scholarly books published by CAMWS members in the past three years. Nominated authors must be members of the Association in good standing and for at least the previous year and that CAMWS has a separate award for pedagogical books (see Bolchazy Book Award). In the case of co-authored books, all authors must meet “first book” and membership eligibility requirements. Self-nominations are encouraged. Please send titles and publishing information to the chair of the subcommittee at firstbook@camws.org.

The Subcommittee will close its list for the 2023-2024 award in September.

Books published after that date may be considered for the 2023-2024 award.

The winning book(s) are announced at the annual CAMWS business meeting.

Winner of the 2022-2023 Award

Lindsey Anne Mazurek

(Indiana University) is the recipient of the First Book Award for her book Isis in a Global Empire: Greek Identity Through Egyptian Religion in Roman Greece (Cambridge University Press 2022).

Further information, including eligibility requirements, deadlines, and a list of previous winners of this award, can be found at the First Book Award webpage:
