

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

CAMWS TRAVEL AWARDS

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South sponsors Awards for primary-, middle-, and secondary-school teachers, graduate students, and undergraduates to attend CAMWS meetings.. Recipients must be members of CAMWS. Deadline for grant applications for Manson A. Stewart Travel Awards or James Ruebel Undergraduate Travel Awards is January 30.

Manson A. Stewart Travel Awards

Designed primarily to assist K-12 teachers with cash awards to offset the costs of attending CAMWS meetings, including the cost of a substitute teacher. Graduate students and contingent faculty are also eligible for these awards, which are not intended to cover all costs of the travel. The size of the award varies according to the actual cost the travel will entail, the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Preference will be given to individuals who have not previously received this award. Awards for travel to meetings have ranged from $150 $700; for travel to a Southern Section meeting, somewhat less. Applicants must be current CAMWS members.

James Ruebel Undergraduate Travel Awards

James Ruebel Undergraduate Travel Awards are also available for undergraduate students to attend the annual CAMWS meeting (not CAMWS-SS). These awards honor James Ruebel of Ball State University (and CAMWS President in 2001-2002) who was especially dedicated to undergraduate education. The size of the award varies according to the actual cost the travel will entail, the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Preference will be given to individuals who have not previously received this award. Applicants must be current CAMWS members.
