

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

LATIN TRANSLATION CONTEST FOR COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South offers $250 cash prizes, book awards, and letters of commendation to qualifying winners in its Latin Translation Contest. These intermediate and advanced exams are open to both high school (including home-schooled) and college/university students. The two groups will be judged separately.

Writers of the 5 most outstanding papers in the competition for advanced college/university students will each receive a $250 cash prize. An additional 10 outstanding contestants will receive a book prize relevant to classical antiquity. Up to 30 other writers of meritorious examinations will receive letters of commendation.

Writers of the 5 most outstanding papers in the competition for intermediate college/university students will each receive a $100 cash prize. An additional 10 outstanding contestants will receive a book prize relevant to classical antiquity. Up to 30 other writers of meritorious examinations will receive letters of commendation.

Colleges or universities administering the exam must be institutional members of CAMWS. This examination must be administered by a school official other than the Latin teacher towards the end of the fall semester, and the results are announced in the spring.

Further information, application forms, deadlines and the names of previous winners of this contest can be found at the contest webpage: camws.org/awards/school.php.
